Intern - Collections (Photography)

Role type: Internship

Location: Bangalore

Contract: 3 months

Stipend: 15,000 per month

Application deadline: 25th March 2019

Start date: 1st April 2019

About MAP

The Museum of Art & Photography (MAP) is a new and innovative arts organisation opening in Bangalore in 2020. MAP's mission is to exhibit, interpret and preserve a growing collection of art and cultural artefacts, motivated by a belief that museums can play a positive role in society. MAP is custodian to a growing collection of over 15,000 art works, predominantly from the Indian subcontinent and dating from the 12th century to the present. Its 43,000 sq. ft. flagship site will include five galleries, an auditorium, an art and research library, education center, a multimedia center and a specialised research and conservation facility.

Job Description

MAP is recruiting two interns to work in its Collections Department with a specific focus on its extensive photography holdings. The interns will play an active role in assisting MAP's archivists in the cataloguing of 19th century, 20th century and contemporary photographs relating to South Asia. These will be hands on and intensive roles as part of a small but busy team.

Essential Competencies

- A graduate degree
- A demonstrable knowledge of the history of photography, especially in the context of South Asia
- A desire to learn and willingness to work as part of a team
- Impeccable written English, and a keen eye for detail

Equality & Diversity

MAP is an equal opportunities employer. We oppose all forms of discrimination and believe that all people, regardless of their identity or membership of any group deserve to be treated equally, consistently and fairly. We welcome creativity, excellence and different perspectives that individuals of all backgrounds and abilities bring to our work.

Application process

To apply please submit your CV and covering letter to careers@map-india.org by the 25th March with the subject line 'Intern - Photography'. Please keep your covering letter to one page and outline why you want to intern with MAP, what you would want to achieve out of the internship, and where you think you can contribute to the department.
