About the Museum of Art & Photography

The Museum of Art & Photography (MAP) is a bold, dynamic and ambitious project committed to building and sustaining a new museum of international standards in South India. Its mission is to exhibit, interpret and preserve a growing collection of art and cultural artifacts, motivated by a belief that museums can play a positive role in society.

MAP is the custodian to a growing collection of over 18,000 art works, predominantly from the Indian subcontinent and dating from the 12th century to the present. Its 43,000 sq. ft. flagship site will include five galleries, an auditorium, an art and research library, education center, a multimedia center and a specialised research and conservation facility. From this center, MAP will produce exhibitions, encourage and foster new academic research and improve access and understanding for the visual arts in India, with a key focus on inclusively building new audiences.

Role Overview

The Collections Manager will be responsible for the cataloguing and documentation of the museum's growing collection of artworks. They will provide the leadership and strategy for ensuring all artworks in the MAP collection are accurately catalogued, and will lead a team of specialists, archivists, photographers, conservators and our registrar, whilst working closely with our Exhibitions and Educations departments, providing access to the collection for a range of programming. MAP is dedicated to making its collection as accessible to as wide an audience as possible and this role is therefore central to the museum achieving this mission.

Required competencies

Candidates should have proven experience working with organising large collections, as well as demonstrable managerial experience. The candidate should be passionate about being part of committed team working in a fast paced and performance driven culture.

Equality & Diversity

MAP is an equal opportunities employer. It opposes all forms of discrimination and believes that all people, regardless of their identity or membership of any group deserve to be treated equally, consistently and fairly. MAP welcomes creativity, excellence and different perspectives that individuals of all backgrounds and abilities bring to our work.
