The Museum of Art and Photography (MAP) is looking to recruit an Illustrator for a major new research project on Indian Art. The Illustrator will be required to produce creative as well as more formal and technical illustrations for a range of subjects relating to Indian art history. MAP is a dynamic and ambitious organisation committed to building and sustaining a new museum of international standards in south India. To know more about the museum, please visit www.map-india.org.

Interested applicants must share MAP's vision of encouraging and fostering new research and improving access and understanding for the visual arts in India, with a key focus on inclusively building new audiences.

We invite applications from candidates who

- Hold a Bachelors/Masters degree or its equivalent in Visual Art/Fine Art/Graphic Design/ Illustration or similar fields
- Have a strong interest in Indian art, textile, handicrafts, architecture, photography etc.
- Have experience in creating illustrations based on research and briefs
- Have an eye for detail, design and image composition
- Are proficient in Adobe Suite (Photoshop, Illustrator, etc.), Corel Draw, InDesign

Applicants must be proactive, driven, able to adhere to deadlines and work seamlessly across levels and teams. We welcome creativity, dedication, excellence and different perspectives from individuals of all backgrounds and abilities.

To apply, please fill in the application form here.

Selected applicants will then be presented with a small illustration task to complete, based on which the final selection will be made.

Shortlisted candidates will receive confirmation via email by the 1st of April 2020.

We aim for our recruiting processes to be transparent and open, giving everyone an opportunity to apply and for their application to be reviewed by the hiring team. MAP is an equal opportunities employer. We oppose all forms of discrimination and believe that all people, regardless of their identity or membership of any group deserve to be treated equally, consistently and fairly. Please write to shrey.maurya@map-india.org with any queries you may have.
