RESEARCH INTERN – CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Duration: 3 months, Full-time (40 hours a week)

Location: Remote/working from home

Application Deadline: Rolling

Role Commencement: Immediate (no later than 1st October 2020)

The Museum of Art and Photography (MAP) is looking for a talented candidate to assist researchers and editors on a special online project. This position is available to undergraduate and graduate students, as well as recent graduates. The candidate will have the opportunity to gain professional experience and insight in the museum and education field.

About the Museum of Art & Photography

MAP is a dynamic and ambitious organisation committed to building and sustaining a new museum of international standards in south India. Education in art and culture is one of MAP's key focus areas. To know more about the museum, please visit www.map-india.org.

Interested applicants must share MAP's vision of encouraging and fostering new academic research and improving access to and understanding of the visual arts in India, with a key focus on inclusively building new audiences.

Role Description:

- To conduct extensive image research around specific topics on Indian Art, focusing on textiles
- To conduct research for timelines, and short-form entries for MAP's encyclopedia project
- To edit segments of existing research documents

Eligibility:

- The applicant should ideally be enrolled in or have completed their undergraduate degree in Art - History or Museum Studies. Passionate candidates from other disciplines may choose to apply.
- Excellent writing and organisational skills, and impeccable attention to detail
- Ability to multitask within a fast-paced and challenging framework
- A genuine interest in Indian Art

To apply, please complete the online application form here.

Shortlisted candidates will be asked to complete a short task a week after they apply, and will subsequently be invited for interviews. The role will then commence immediately or at the latest by 1st October, 2020.

Equality & Diversity

MAP is an equal opportunities employer. It opposes all forms of discrimination and believes that all people, regardless of their identity or membership of any group deserve to be treated equally, consistently and fairly. MAP welcomes creativity, excellence and different perspectives that individuals of all backgrounds and abilities bring to our work.
