

Colouring Sheets: Hybrid Animals in Art

Our stories and art often feature imaginative creatures that combine the body parts of two or more animals and birds. Sometimes, animals and birds merge with human beings and at other times, a number of species combine to create a singular whole. Different cultures all over the world have different hybrid creatures in their myths. For example, here is the divine eagle Garuda as a bird-man hybrid. Who do you think he is carrying on his back?

Here are outlines of some more hybrid creatures from the MAP collection. Challenge yourself and try colouring them using colours that you would NOT normally see in the real world!
